Rules and Regulations

Any event with more than 200 people requires special consideration.

Fees are due in full within 15 days of reservation or reservation will be cancelled. Cancellation with a refund less a $50 administration fee may be made up to 30 days in advance. Cancellations within 30 days of the event are non-refundable.

If you plan to serve alcohol at your event, you must contact the City Clerk's Office for a permit. There is no fee.

While Botanic Park staff ensures that the space you reserve is clean and ready for your event, it does not provide event management or clean up. You are responsible for appointing an event manager or wedding coordinator to be the primary point of contact for your event and all vendors including rental companies, caterers, musicians, photographers, etc. The renter and the event manager must watch the introductory video on the website at <http://yampariverbotanicpark.org/visit>. As the property adjoins a neighborhood, music is limited to low volume, acoustic. No drums.

All gates must be closed at the end of your event to prevent animals from entering the Park and eating its plant collections.
